

2024 TEXTRON AVIATION NEGOTIATIONS UPDATE

August 21, 2024

IAM Local 774 Negotiating Committee Q&A:

Q. Why would your negotiators tour the new training facility?

- A. To see first hand where employees are being trained and their working environment.
- A. To see what type of training the company will be offering.
- A. To have an opportunity to ask the company questions about the training plan directly.
- A. The IAM encourages companies to train local individuals to maintain local employment opportunities.

Q. Why don't we hear more specific information from the negotiating committee?

- A. Things change daily, sometimes minute to minute.
- A. Giving specific information could prompt the company to retract something we have successfully negotiated up to that point.

Q. How can I stay informed?

- A. Check the official Local Lodge 774 website and social media pages. Examples: Text Blast, Local Lodge website @LL774.org, Facebook @ICT774, Instagram @IAMLL774, and X. @IAMLL774
- A. Check with your shop stewards, fill-in plant chairs, and E-board members.

Q. How can I get involved?

- A. Visit a plant chair's office to join a strike committee in case of a work stoppage.
- A. Please sign up to be a teller, ballot counter, or security during the contract vote and tally.

Fraternally,

Your Local Lodge 774 Negotiating Committee
