

FOLLOW-UP DETAILS

STRIKE @Textron Aviation Inc.

Important Follow-Up Details

- You are not eligible for unemployment while on strike.
- Be sure you have all prescriptions filled, doctor, dentist, optometrist visits completed before the company discontinues our medical, dental, and vision insurance on Monday, September 30, 2024. This includes Life Insurance, and Accidental & Dismemberment Insurance you have with the company.
- Finalize any financial payment arrangements. Call your credit card holders, mortgage, and auto lenders and inform them of your situation. Ask them to work with you, if need.
- It's okay to find another full-time or part-time job while we are on strike, 4 hours of documented strike-related activities will qualify members for the IAM Strike Benefit of $200 per week, commencing the third week.
- Join a Strike Committee (See the list at LL774.org)
- Let us know of any special skill set you may have that can help members who need help while on strike, by emailing us at communicator@LL774.org.
- A survey to discover what members want to see changed in the company's offer will be sent out to members in the following days. You'll need to use your "IAM Book" number to verify your membership on your survey. If you do not have or know your book number, you'll need to contact District Lodge 70 for your personal book number.
